Have confidence. If there was a tool that made searching easier and your research effective, you'd use it MORE wouldn't you?

Introducing Scopus, a new navigational tool you can use to search the world's largest abstract database of scientific, technical and medical information. Scopus delivers what you're looking for: it's fast, easy to use and brings you better results. Now there's a single, efficient tool to find all the relevant research published in the scientific literature and web resources.
